

Myko

STEFAN BORSELIUS

Hälften stol, hälften konsthantverk. Med MYKO bevisar STEFAN BORSELIUS återigen sin självklara plats bland designeliten. En designernas mästare, vars arbete andas självsäkerhet i en otalig mängd skisser och nästintill fulländade prototyper. Perfektion i proportion och konstruktion, med hållbarhetstänk och finess i användningen av material. Fullborda matsalsbordet eller ditt hemmakontor med en stol som ger dig en ursäkt att sitta kvar länge.

Part chair, part work of craft art, MYKO is another example of why Stefan Borselius is held in such high regard in design circles. A designer's designer. There's a sense of security in the way Borselius works, sketching heavily and constructing prototypes which could well be sold straight off. Perfect proportions, precise construction, minimal waste and fine use of materials. Surround your dining table with them, or slide one under your desk, and you'll soon find excuses to sit for a while longer than usual.

Myko with Armrests

DESIGNED WITH STEFAN BORSELIUS

Myko is one of those quiet classics. Instantly recognisable sitting taut and resolute, it's a brilliant balance of form and function. Designed by Stefan Borselius, Fogia asked the designer to extend the range to include armrest and swivel base versions. Myko as a range was always intended to be expanded so the new models fit with the range beautifully.
